The Diaper Pin Kid

I.
I am the Diaper Pin Kid,
I have done what I did.
Cleaned up the Old West,
So now it is the best,
I shot off it's Lid!

II.
Ralph The Rustler was here,
Meant that trouble was near,
I had the feeling,
Soon we would have stealing,
From this there was no cheer.

III.
Ralph needed a hand
To change the cattle brand,
Could make H into Y,
And the cattle didn't cry,
Soon he had a crooked band.

IV.
My safety pins were ready,
My little hand was steady,
I didn't give a hoot,
If I had to shoot,
I sure was firm and heady.

V.
My Rocking horse felt strange,
As we rode out to the range,
He trotted on the double,
He must have sensed trouble,
In his speed there was no change.

VI.
I had to take some time out,
You know what it is about.
A strong baby must eat,
To perform the feat
Of putting bad men to rout.

VII.
Also my Rocking horse I had to feed,
I like my trusty well bred steed,
Soon we were on the way,
Those bad men would pay,
For trying this crooked deed.

VIII.
We got there not too late,
At a quarter to eight,
One went for his gun,
His number was done,
He deserved this bad fate.

IX.
One rustler tried to fly,
I spit at his right eye,
It was the big boss,
He fell off his horse,
And then started to cry.

Ralph the Rustler is no more,
He went through the prison door,
For that's where he went,
Five years to be spent,
Now I can play on my floor.
